ABOUT US ...

The INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS department advises the management team, the rector and heads of degree programmes on strategic aspects of internationalisation, and also acts as a central service point for around 220 outgoing students and 130 ERASMUS interns every year.

We also manage over 200 partnership agreements with universities all over the world and provide assistance to over 220 incoming students a year. We offer a comprehensive range of training courses in German as a Foreign Language for exchange and international students as well as for academic staff and organise events promoting the social integration of students. We are the main point of contact for our international partner universities and potential partners.
