

Green.Building.Solutions. Summer University Vienna, July 15 – August 06, 2023

A renowned Vienna-based design and engineering program, which brings together expertise from across the globe to identify ways to make the built environment more sustainable. The participation fee for professionals is EUR 2.490, -, for students 2.000, -.

What is included?

- Certificate of participation showing completed modules issued by the OeAD student housing
- Certificate of the University of Natural Resources and Life Sciences, Vienna (BOKU) showing 7 ECTS (only if application is received until April 7th, 2023)
- All costs for the lectures and lecture hall reservations
- All costs related to lecture-related activities (field trips, workshops and excursions)
- Studio space for the students and guidance by professors for the group design project
- Dedicated staff at your hand to answer your questions
- All costs related to extra-curricular activities (architecture city tour, Viennese waltzing lesson, movie night and additional events)
- Catered evening events (opening and closing ceremony, traditional wine tavern dinner)
- Public transport tickets for the duration of the summer university
- Light refreshments during the lectures
- Fully furnished accommodation in an OeAD-Guesthouse in passive house standard with the option to extend the stay an extra week at no extra cost

All participants must pay for the following:

- Travel tickets to and from Vienna
- Insurances (health and household insurance)
- Food and laundry during their stay in Austria
- Costs for obtaining a visa for Austria, only if needed

Website: <https://www.oeadstudenthousing.at/en/summer-universities/gbs/>

Contact: gbs@oead.at